August 24th, 1927.

Default of the defendant entered on motion of attorney for plaintiff.

August 24th, 1927.

The default of the defendant having been entered in the above entitled matter, this cause coming regularly on for hearing, and it appearing to the court that the defendant has been served with summons, and a copy of the complaint in the manner provided by law and he has not answered or opposed within the time allowed by law or at all and that his default having been regularly entered, the court after hearing the evidence finds that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and correct and plaintiff is entitled to judgment prayed for in his complaint,

Wherefore, it is ordered, adjudged and decreed that the plaintiff A. W. Martin do have and recover of and from the defendant C. L. Roberts the principal sum of $183.00, together with $10.98 interest and plaintiff's costs of suit which are hereby taxed at 1933

Oct. 20th

The above entitled action having come on regularly for hearing before the court, sitting without a jury, a jury having been waived, the court heard testimony of witnesses for both parties and took into consideration stipulations entered into by respective counsel. The case was then submitted to the court for consideration, and the case was taken under advisement. After due consideration of the law and the facts, the court finds for plaintiff and orders judgment as follows:-

It is ordered and adjudged that the plaintiff Duval Williams do have and recover from the defendant H.F. Serpa the possession of the property described in the complaint, to wit, four red roan young cattle, and in case that delivery thereof cannot be had, that plaintiff have and recover of and from defendant, the sum of One Hundred ($100.) Dollars, the value of said cattle, together with plaintiff's costs of court which are taxed herein at $ _____

Judgment rendered and entered this 20th day of October, 1933.
